CITY and SOUTHWARK COURTS.

Lord Mayor's Court.

Office, Guildhall E C.

Hours from 10 till 4; Saturdays, 10 till 1.

[Procedure Act, 1857, 20 & 21 Vict. cap. clvii. (local).]

The Mayor's Court is a Court of Record. The jurisdiction extends to all places within the City and Liberties; and, if the cause of action arises within the jurisdiction, the plaint may, by leave of the Court, be served in any part of England or Wales.

The Court has a legal jurisdiction concurrent with that of the High Court of Justice in all personal actions of a civil nature (except replevins), arising under the common or general law of the land, within its limits; and also in ejectment. It has also jurisdiction over a variety of causes of considerable importance, arising out of the City Customs (as Sequestration, Disfranchisement, Defamation, Debt on Concessit Solvere, Apprenticiality, Feme Sole, Merchant &c.), and in penal actions under Acts of Common Council.

Objections to the jurisdiction can only be taken by plea (§ 15), or, in certain cases, by proceeding in the High Court of Justice for a prohibition. And, in cases where the debt or damage claimed does not exceed £50, no such plea is allowed provided the defendant, or one defendant, dwell or carry on business within the City or Liberties, or have done so within six months, or the cause of action, either wholly or in part, arose therein (§ 12).

[By the County Courts Act, 1888, 51 & 52 Vict. cap. 43, § 11 no costs beyond County Court costs are allowed in cases where the verdict is for less than £10. (See also Mayor's Court Procedure Act, 1857, § 11).]

The proceedings on the law side may be removed [by order of a Judge or Master (Borough Local Courts of Record Act, 1872, 35 & 36 Vict. cap. 86, § 12)] to one of the Divisions of His Majesty's High Court of Justice by writ of certiorari, &c., under certain restrictions as to time and finding security, &c. (20 & 21 Vict. cap. clvii. §§ 16 to 19, 52.

The equitable power of this Court, over matters arising within its jurisdiction, is concurrent with that of the Chancery Division of the High Court of Justice. It has the exclusive privilege of awarding restitution of apprentice premiums. It also relieves, where necessary, by injunction, against proceedings on the law side of the Court.

The proceedings on the equity side are removable into the Chancery Division above mentioned, with the permission of one of the Judges of that Division (§ 20).

Appeals lie from the determinations of the Court to any one of the Common Law divisions of the High Court of Justice (§ 8); and Error also lies for matters appearing on the record, to His Majesty's Court of Appeal, instead of to the "Court of St Martin's-le-Grand" (see § 4). In proceedings on the equity side there is an appeal to the House of Lords (and see Judicature Acts & Rules made thereunder).

The Court sits for the trial of causes every month, except September, in the Guildhall, the sitting days being appointed by the Recorder.

(heretofore "THE SHERIFFS' COURT OF LONDON").

[Under the "London (City) Small Debts Extension Act, 1852," 15 & 16 Vict. cap. lxxvii. (local) (repealing the former Acts), personal actions where the debt or damage claimed is not more than £50 (with certain exceptions) are heard and determined in this Court in a summary way. The jurisdiction extends to the City and Liberties, and to all precincts and extra-parochial places adjoining (§§ 39, 40). The general provisions of the Act are similar to those of the County Courts Acts, and under the County Court Equitable Jurisdiction Act, 28 & 29 Vict. cap. 99, and the County Courts Act, 1867, 30 & 31 Vict. cap. 142, this Court has the like jurisdiction, powers, and authorities as those possessed by the Metropolitan County Courts; and there is the like right of Appeal to the Superior Courts. The Court has also an Admiralty Jurisdiction, under the 31 & 32 Vict. cap. 71, and 32 & 33 Vict. cap. 51; with an Appeal to the High Court of Justice.

By the last-mentioned Act, this Court is now called "The City of London Court," and the Rules and Orders in force for the time being, regulating the practice and costs in the County Courts, and forms of proceedings therein, are also in force herein.

By Order in Council of January 14th, 1869, the City of London Court was appointed to have Admiralty jurisdiction, under the "County Courts' Admiralty Jurisdiction Act, 1868" (31 & 32 Vict. cap. 71, and see 32 & 33 Vict. cap. 51), and the districts of the following County Courts were assigned to this Court as its district for Admiralty purposes viz.:

Quarter Sessions.

JURISDICTION.—The Court of General or Quarter Sessions is a court of record, deriving its jurisdiction in counties, ridings &c.—1st, from the commission of the peace; or 2nd, from particular statutes: 1st. From the commission it has jurisdiction to try all felonies, and all misdemeanors, except perjury and forgery at common law. It has never, however, been usual to try there any greater offences than small felonies; and in those counties and places which are within the Central Criminal Court District [see above] the jurisdiction was formerly much limited by the 17th section of the statute 4 & 5 Will. 4, cap. 36. That section is, however, repealed by 14 & 15 Vict. cap. 55, § 13. But the statutes 5 & 6 Vict. c. 38, § 1, and 4 & 5 Vict. c. 56, § 6, prohibit all Sessions for counties, ridings, divisions, liberties, or boroughs, from trying for treason, or misprision of treason, murder, or capital felony, or for any felony punishable for the first offence by transportation for life, or for various misdemeanors there enumerated. 2nd. By numerous statutes, the Court has also jurisdiction as to Alehouses (special sessions), Appeals from Petty or Special Sessions, Coroners' fees, County rate, Friendly Societies, Gaols, diverting and stopping Highways, Lunatic Asylums, Vagrants, and various other matters.

The jurisdiction of the Quarter Sessions of Boroughs which have a separate Court of Quarter Sessions is in most respects similar; the Recorder being the sole judge. [5 & 6 Wm. 4, c. 76, §§ 103, 105, 111; and see 12 & 13 Vict. c. 18.]

METROPOLITAN SESSIONS.

Times of Sitting.—The statute 11 Geo. 4, & 1 Will. 4, c. 70, § 35 enacts, that "the justices of the peace in every county, riding, or division, for which Quarter Sessions of the Peace by law ought to be held, shall hold their General Quarter Sessions of the Peace in:— the first [full] week after the 11th Oct.;

—— 28th Dec.;
—— 31st March [but see below]; &
—— 24th June."

But the 4 & 5 Will. 4, cap. 47, authorises the justices at the Epiphany Sessions to appoint two justices to fix the Spring or Easter Quarter Sessions, so as not to interfere with the Assizes, such Sessions not being earlier than the 7th of March, nor later than the 22nd of April.
